Autumn Term - We commence new term in September and this term ends at the end of November. The timetable for each school is the same as it was last year. Teachers will give higher grade steps to those students who continuously study in the class from last school year. If anyone misses a class due to sickness or by accident, we offer a make-up class on another day. Please contact us by email to confirm the day in advance to avoid overcrowding.

Newsletters - Please make sure that you receive our newsletter as it contains important information such as school holidays, changes, watching days, fees and so on. Newsletters can also be found on our website: www.idatokyo.com.
